4-H Project Discovery Day gives kids a chance to explore

TOMAHAWK — Twenty-seven youths from throughout Lincoln County were at the Tomahawk Middle School on March 14, where they participated in a variety of 4-H project sessions as part of Project Discovery Day.

Topics included basket weaving, digital storytelling, arts, robotics, propagating plants, and much, much more.

Sponsored by the Lincoln County 4-H Leaders' Association and University of Wisconsin-Extension 4-H Youth Development in Lincoln County, Project Discovery Day is designed to provide youths, in 5-year-old kindergarten and older, a chance to discover what they can learn and do in 4-H. This event is open to all and 4-H members are encouraged to bring a friend.

During the day, sessions were led by the following 4-H adult and older youth volunteers and University of Wisconsin-Extension staff members: Amanda Kostman, Lisa Woelbing, Yvette Chieves, Beth Krueger, Lisa Krueger, Caroline Lemke, Austin Leinen, Christina Rencontre, Dan Marzu, Jeni Marzu, Larry Hendrickson, George Hendrickson, Pat Chieves, Maxine Schuetze, Chris Gano, Sara Proulx, Hanna Proulx and Debbie Moellendorf.

Another 4-H Project Discovery Day is being planned for fall in Merrill. Watch for more information and registration materials in late August/early Septem-
