4-H recognizes those willing to lend a hand

"4-H Volunteers are always willing to lend a hand."

That was the theme for this year's Lincoln County 4-H Leaders' Association, Inc. Annual Recognition Banquet held on Saturday, October 29th at Schult's Country Inn. Over 100 Lincoln County 4-H volunteers, members, friends and community supporters attended this year's banquet. Members of the Merrill Busy Bees 4-H Club hosted this year's banquet.

4-H is a community of young people across Lincoln County who are learning leadership, citizenship and life skills. Youth in grades Kindergarten through 13 (one year after high school graduation) can join 4-H, regardless of where you live. If you are interested in learning more about 4-H or how to getting involved in Lincoln County 4-H, please feel free to contact Debbie or Amanda at the UW-Extension office at 715- 539-1072 or visit our website at <http://lincoln.uwex.edu/> or subscribe to the Lincoln County 4-H Blog <http://fyi.uwex.edu/lincolncounty4h/> for up to the
