

After school clubs get grants for food classes

Lincoln County 4-H is among the after-school programs in 11 counties that will receive money from the JC Penney Round Up for Afterschool program.

It will use its grant to address nutrition and food security with after-school education that focuses on community gardening at 4-H After School Clubs at Jefferson, Kate Goodrich and Washington elementary schools; Prairie River Middle School "After the Bell," and KinsKlub in Tomahawk.

More information about Lincoln County afterschool opportunities is available at <http://lincoln.uwex.edu/after-school-network/> or Wisconsin 4-H Youth Development afterschool opportunities is available at <http://4h.uwex.edu/afterschool/index.cfm>.

Merrill Focus

FRIDAY, MAY 24, 2013